March 22nd 1976

Dear Peter,

Thanks very much for the felicitations. As you know I really didn't expect to get the job so it all came as an extraordinary surprise. I'm hugely looking forward to coming to Oxford even though I'm fully briefed as to the agonies as well as the ecstasies. I hear from Richard that congrats are in order for you too for getting that plum award from the BA to go East. Lucky s.o.b. - I'm green with envy at all that lovely research time. Roll on the first sabbatical.

I do feel terrible about that balls-up I made in Cambridge - how can you ever forgive me. I was so discombobulated what with the job news and the sudden and rather dramatic crisis it had plunged Christ's history into that everything else got swept clean away - milles salaams. That being so I wish I could be more helpful about your Orde problem. But I'm not sure I can. Louis did indeed create a Dutch "nobility" on Feb. 14th 1807 but it was called the Orde van de Unie not, as far as I know van de Nederlandse Leeuw. On the other hand the latter, as a Lodewijkian creation does ring a faint and tiny carillon at the far recesses of my memory but I'm damned if I can find any ref. to it. Have you tried the relevant Colenbrander narrative or the Gedenkstukken for Feb 1807 or the NNJBk, or the absurd Labarre de Raillicourt which is very strong on flummery.

Now, as for the Orde van de Unie, my Almanac de Cour for 1809 has it divided into three orders, the Grand Croix which goes to men of Ministerraad rank or Rd van Staat as well as to top foreign ministers (Mollien), princes of Empire, allies etc. Below that comes Commanders including other Raden van Staat (Appelius, Calkoen) as well as high nobles and notables like Anthony Hope, and Hodshon the Amsterdam banker-schepen; Pieter van de Kastele and others of that ilk. The Commanders including people like Gerrit Pijman and Robert Voute seem to me to be partly comprised of a list drawn up by Gogel and another by Mollerus in 1807, but the King was constantly asking for nominees, meeting them and making up his own mind. Third comes the Ridderschap (Chevaliers) of which in 1809 I make there to be roughly some 7-800!  Nearly all native Dutch and obviously (and erroneously) including anyone who could be thought to be a friend of the regime or a man worthy of note or open to persuasion by flattery - thus it includes a Bentinck van Diepenheim (how optimistic can you get) as well as Johannes Busch, Anton Falck, Carel Hultman, Reuvers the jurist - virtually all the high elite of the old nobility, Torck van Rosendaels; a van Schuylenburg van Bommende, the van Hasselts and so on. No Indonesian potentates though. It seems likely that the Ridderschap got made up on the same basis as the Napoleonic amalgam - of restoring the trad. nobility and supplementing them with those whom the King wished to honour. More than that I can't say. Commanders and Grand Crossers had the right to nominate I think so perhaps an award of another Orde was within Daendels's purview - He was a holder of the Grand Cross of course along with Gogel and Schimmelpenninck. But it's odd that in the official Almanac there shouldn't be a mention of the Leeuw, isn't it. I should perhaps add that none of the imperial gazettes will be much good since N. refused to acknowledge that Louis had any right to create or reaffirm such ranks and a condition of the limited partition of March-April 1810 was that it was abolished.

Sorry I can't be more helpful. Have you tried writing the IIde Afdeeling or even the KB?

See you soon I hope - I'm off to the States for a bit,

Exc.

aanmerking genomen hebbende, dat op Samarang bijna alle objecten, zo van levensmiddelen, als andere behoeften, in con- tante munt worden betaald en naar in enkele gevallen papieren geld wordt aangenomen; overwegende, dat op dit fundament bij besluit van den 17^{en} Junij laatsteleden een gunstige dispositie genomen is ten aanzien van de uitbetaling der tractementen aan de militairen aldaar, en considerende, dat zijne secretarissen en de verdere geëmpliojeerden op hun bureau in 't zelfde geval verseren; besluit, dat, gerekend van den 1^{en} dezer, de tractementen der secretarissen generaal en van de verdere geëmpliojeerden op derzelver bureau uitbetaald zullen worden, de helft in zilver geld en de weder helft in papieren van credit.

Het tractement der twee secretarissen-generaal bedroeg 1000 rijksdaalders 's maands; dat van een eersten kommiss 250, dat van drie onder-kooplieden en gezworen klerken 150, dat van twee andere dito's 75, dat van twee ordinaire klerken 30 en dat van twee andere dito's 40 rd 's maands.

Op den 7^{en} December 1808 bepalde Daendels nader, dat deze regeling zoude gelden, »waar en wervwaards dezelve [secretarissen, enz.] zich ook in het gevolg en in dienst van Z. E. den Maarschalk en Gouverneur Generaal zullen bevinden».

Zie ook 8 September 1808.

27 Julij. Opheffing der betrekking van tweeden regent van Denak.

Een der motieven voor deze opheffing was, »dat het aan- stellen en onderhouden van maar één regent den gemeenen man zal soulagere en bijdragen om hem eenigzins tot verhaal te doen konnen van de kwellingen en vexatiën, »waaronder hij nu reeds zoo lange heeft gezucht».

In dizelfde besluit beweert Daendels, dat Denak »onder het vorige bestuur van den gewezen Javaasch gouverneur, »Engelhard, zoo slecht is geadministreerd».

Volgens zijn werk, Staat der Ned. O. I. bezittingen, bladz. 47, bedroegen de jaarlijksche uitgaven van den ministers regent ± 50,000 rijksdaalders.

28 Julij. Aanstelling van vier Javanen en twee Maleysers als klerken bij den gezworen translateur voor de Javaan- sche taal te Samarang.

Zij kregen een tractement van 16 rijksdaalders 's maands en de Javanen den titel van mantri.

Vroeger waren zij »uit privé beurs» van den translateur betaald, maar dit kon niet langer, omdat de translateur een vast tractement had gekregen.

28 Julij. Reglement voor het ceremonieel, in acht te nemen door de residenten bij de hoven te Soerakarta en te Djokjokarta.

Daendels' Declaration to Patih at Remarang
24 Sept?

Daendels' Declaration to Patih at Remarang June/Sept?
1808

I receive with much pleasure ~~the~~ and pleasure
the homage of the Sulthan, through his Prime Minister and further Ambassadors.

I do not consider this solemnity in the light of homage of a vassal to his Lord paramount, the feudal system having been abolished in Europe, but I look upon it the same as congratulation on my safe arrival on this island and on the commencement of the administration of H.M. possessions in India.

The East India Company and the Republic of the United Provinces had lost their former influence in Europe but the election of the Emperor's brother Louis Napoleon to the throne of Holland has caused the political influence of that country to be re-established both by adopting a more energetic mode of administration and by a most intimate union with the mightiest Empire in the world - It is the wish of King Louis to promote the happiness of his subjects on the Island of Java and he gives them peace, prosperity and a benevolent government.

And I do solemnly declare in the name of His Majesty the Friend and protector of the Princes and inhabitants of Java that I will endeavour to maintain peace and to render the island of Java as prosperous as possible

Signed
